

Costa da Morte — Finisterre

Noia

Muros

Carnota

Ézaro
(Xallas Waterfall)

Corcubión

Finisterre

Noia

#Inevitable

At the beginning of the Ria of Muros-Noia, this seafaring town features a medieval city centre with the beautiful Church of Santa María and that of San Martiño.

Get me there

Muros

#Recommended

One of the best-preserved seafaring old towns in Galicia, artistic-historic heritage and the natural entrance to the Costa de Morte.

Get me there

Carnota

#Curious

The biggest “hórreo” (stone granary) in Galicia and a marvellous coastline with Ancoradoiro beach as the best example.

Get me there

Ézaro (Xallas Waterfall)

#Overwhelming

One of the highest waterfalls in Europe flowing into the sea, recently revived during certain days of the year.

Get me there

Corcubión

#If there is time left

Corcubión with its promenade, its rebuilt port after being destroyed by part of Napoleon’s army, Casa Miñones are some of the things to see before reaching Fisterra.

Get me there

Finisterre

#Not to be missed

A mythical place of great magnetism, considered the end of the earth by many civilizations for centuries. Sunsets from Cape Fisterra are a must.

Get me there